Remembrance vandals strike

AS Witney's residents and leaders gathered in the town centre to lay wreaths in memory of those who sacrificed their lives in war, vandals snapped a commemorative tree planted on Remembrance Sunday last year.

The line of Oak trees in The Leys park was planted to mark the 100th anniversary of the start of the First World War in 1914.

It is the third time vandals have targeted the trees in the last year.

Mayor of Witney Jim King said: "I'm totally disgusted.

"I think it's atrocious.

"I really do wish vandalism would stop in this town.

"It costs the taxpayer a lot of money. You're talking about £20,000 a quarter.

"These are memorial trees for the people they owe their lives to.

"We would not be where we are to day if it wasn't for British and Commonwealth soldiers."

Family far from puzzled at Rubik's championships

• Jessica, 13, Luke, 15, and Guy Plowman, 43

IT was a case of mind conquering matter for one Witney family at the UK Rubik's Cube championships on Saturday.

And 15-year-old Luke Plowman managed to claim the bragging rights over dad Guy Plowman, 43, and 13-year-old sister Jessica Plowman.

He beat more than 150 other competitors to solve the puzzle with 43 quintillion combinations in an average of 16.71 seconds, out of five speed-solving tests.

Luke made it through to the second round of the tournament in Stevenage, Herefordshire, and finished in 48th place with 16.63 seconds.

But he could not conquer the puzzle in the slick 8.45 seconds Ciaran Beahan from Ireland managed, to claim the victory.

Mr Plowman came 141st with 47.31 seconds and Jessica came 139th with 45.92 seconds.

Two charged for Kerry's murder

By Alex Ballinger

TWO men were charged last night with the murder of Abingdon 26-year-old Kerry Reeves, who was shot in the head at close range last Tuesday.

Billy Johnson, 20, of Ripon Court in Corby, Northamptonshire, and Charles Noble of Kempton Avenue in Ealing, London, were both charged last night and are due to appear in Oxford Magistrates' Court today.

Officers dropped a UK-wide manhunt for Johnson after his arrest on Monday night.

Noble was first arrested in connection with the murder last Wednesday and was re-arrested for a second time yesterday.

Miss Reeves died at Oxford's John Radcliffe hospital last Thursday after a shooting two days earlier outside a block of flats in Thornhill Walk in what police believe was a disagreement between two groups.

Detective Superintendent Chris Ward, head of major crimes at Thames Valley Police, said: "Kerry was brutally shot at close range and her family is understandably devastated by her untimely death.

"There are other people in the Abingdon area who will have an idea why this happened."

An appeal was also issued on Tuesday night for a potential witness who may have been at the scene during the time of the murder to come forward.

Detective Chief Inspector Mike Lynch said: "We have information to suggest that a woman was sitting in a white vehicle outside Thornhill Walk off Northcourt Road at around the time of the shooting last Tuesday.

"I would appeal directly to this woman or anyone who knows her to contact police immediately.

"The woman in the vehicle may not have seen or heard anything suspicious, but we would still like to speak to her as a potential witness in this murder investigation."

Police on Friday published a photo of 20-year-old Billy Johnson who they wanted to speak to in connection to the murder.

However, on Tuesday morning Thames Valley Police said they had called off the manhunt.

Det Supt Ward said police did not currently know a motive but that he believed it was the result of a disagreement between two small groups.

He added: "There is nothing I have seen that says it was mistaken identity.

"My belief is whoever is responsible has targeted her specifically.

"If you discharge a firearm at that close range to someone's head there is a high chance it will result in injury or death."

Miss Reeves was shot before 8.15pm on November 3 in the garden of a block of flats in Thornhill Walk.

She was rushed to Oxford's John Radcliffe hospital in a critical condition but died from her injuries at 11.43am on Thursday.

The post mortem into Miss Reeves' death was held on Monday and found the preliminary cause of death to be a gunshot wound to the head.

Police have not found a murder weapon but Det Supt Ward said he believes it may have been a handgun.

He added he thought it was possible Miss Reeves did not see her attacker coming.

Tributes to Kerry Reeves

THE mum of an Abingdon woman brutally shot in the head at point blank range described saying goodbye to her daughter at her hospital bed.

Miss Reeves' mum Nicola said: "On Tuesday evening my beautiful, funny daughter was brutally taken from me, aged just 26.

"Holding her in my arms for the last time is something a mother should never have to go through. Trying to take in how she looked, kissing her, never wanting to let her go.

"Myself and Kerry's family are completely devastated not only by the loss of our beautiful young girl but the horrific way Kerry was taken from us."

Her granddad Patrick Reeves, 65, said: "We are completely devastated, not only by the loss of our beautiful young girl but the horrific way Kerry was taken from us at the age of 26.

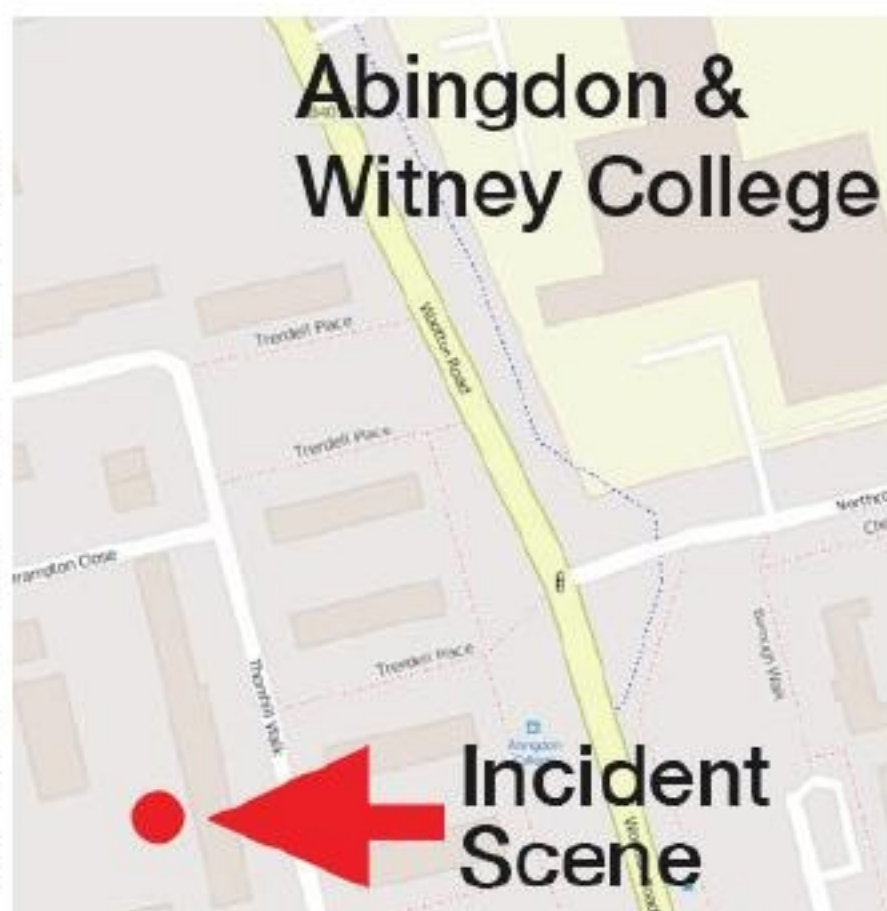

"We need to know what happened to Kerry that night. We need people to help us understand how she came to die in such a brutal way.

"We need people to help us ensure justice is done for this beautiful girl Kerry."

Tributes flooded in on social media. Emma Cunningham wrote on Facebook: "There are just no words to describe how we are all feeling at the moment.

"I feel sick and just want to wake up."

Work to start to revamp Downton Abbey hospital

Memorial tree for fallen is snapped

• The trees being planted last year

• From front page

Witney Quakers member Don Mason helped plant the trees as part of the Witney Churches Together community group.

Mr Mason said: "I was very disappointed. I'm concerned if it represents the ethos of some of the young people in Witney. 'I'm a bit diffident about replacing it. If this is how young people enjoy themselves I don't want to give them any more ammunition.'"

Residents and town leaders gathered at the war memorial in High Street to honour Britain's war dead on Sunday morning.

Councillor King was amongst those who placed a wreath of poppies at the foot of the memorial.

He served in the RAF since 1961 until his retirement in 1961.

He added: "The play park in Deer Park has also been vandalised. When you look at towns of a similar size the vandalism is just as terrible."

Mr Mason said: "One of the other trees was damaged and has started to grow back where it was snapped. The same might happen with this tree."

After a picture of the damaged tree was posted on Facebook Witney Air Cadets have pledged to raise money to replace the tree.

Mike Caffrey posted: "Our cadets are upstanding citizens committed to the community and remembering those who paid the ultimate price. This act of vandalism is atrocious."

Town councillor Chris Holliday also said on Facebook: "Watching the town unite in respect and remembrance yesterday, especially our rapidly growing youth organisations. Isn't it shameful that there are those that just don't get it."

WORK to save a 400-year-old Bampton building used as the hospital in hit TV series Downton Abbey is set to start, 11 months after residents launched a campaign backed by actor Hugh Bonneville.

A £20,000 grant approved by West Oxfordshire District Council (WODC) last night has brought the fundraising total to repair the Old Grammar School in Church View to almost £100,000.

Although still short of its £250,000 target, project leader Robin Shuckburgh said work to revamp the building used as Downton Cottage Hospital can start.

ITV period drama Downton Abbey, starring Mr Bonneville, ended with a special 90-minute final episode on Sunday watched by 8.8 million viewers.

Mr Shuckburgh is chairman of the Bampton Community Archive, which is based in the building alongside the village library.

He said: "The idea is to restore the top floor of the building which will allow us to create a better tourist attraction. People will want to see the location of Downton Abbey."

"We need £100,000 for the roof. We've got £76,000 so far and the £20,000 from West Oxfordshire will take us up to the level we need to start work."

The second floor of the Old Grammar School has fallen into a state of disrepair after being declared unsafe more than 30 years ago.

The projects plans to replacing the building's staircase, strengthen the second floor, and repair the roof.

WODC's £20,000 contribution was agreed at a Cabinet meeting alongside £35,000 given to four other community projects.

The money was the last of the funding allocated for the 2015 to 2016 year as part of the 'Community Facilities Grant Scheme'.

St Martin's Church in Bladon where wartime Prime Minister Sir Winston is buried was given £4,600 to install disabled access. Bampton Recreation Ground Trust was handed £16,900 towards £75,000 plans to replace playground equipment at the 23-year-old play area in Buckland Road.

Chipping Norton Lido was given a £12,100 contribution to £69,000 plans to upgrade buildings for a training room, café kiosk and storage at the outdoor pool in Fox Close.

The Lido is aiming to stay open for the season longer for cold water swimming.

And Chipping Norton and District Cricket Club was given £1,600 to install an artificial wicket.

WODC cabinet member for leisure and communities, James Mills, said: "Our support often helps unlock grants from other funding sources, bringing a greater overall investment into our district."

Decision for park and ride

PLANS for a two-year temporary mini park and ride in Didcot were set to be decided by the Vale of White Horse District Council as the Oxfordshire Guardian went to press last night.

The council's planning committee were set to decide on 814-space car park plans on agricultural land at Hill Farm at a meeting in The Beacon, in Portway, Wantage.

Oxford Architects submitted the planning application on behalf of First Great Western in August.

The plans were recommended for approval by Vale council planning officers.

The park and ride would accommodate users of the Foxhall Road car park which is undergoing a £23million development of a 1,800-space multi-storey car park.

The temporary car park will lie north of the A4310.

A report from the planning officers on the application said: "The proposal is strategically important and in the interest of the public given that it would facilitate temporary parking provision."

Bus cuts risk more than 100 services

By Alex Ballinger

OXFORDSHIRE County Council's (OCC) cabinet has voted in favour of plans to cut subsidised bus services despite opposition from councillors and local groups.

The decision was made at a cabinet meeting held at the council offices in New Road on Tuesday and could see all subsidised services cut by June 2016.

It would effect 118 bus routes, some of which could be cut completely and others which could be run less frequently.

Green Party county councillor Sam Coates said: "The vote to end bus subsidies is terrible news for those communities who rely on them."

"As people get older they may drive less and those who need help to get around may be isolated."

"We will be putting the case for a small additional increase in council tax to save as many vital services as possible."

OCC currently pays £3.7 million each year to the county's bus operators to support low use bus routes.

The cuts have been made as the council attempts to save £7.5m from its supported transport services and forms part of wider £290m cuts the council needs to make by 2018.

OCC leader Ian Hudspeth announced last month the council could also need to save an extra £50m by 2020.

Cabinet member for transport David Nimmo Smith said: "As a county council we are faced with very difficult choices."

"It is really important to understand that more than 90 per cent of bus services in Oxfordshire would be unaffected by these proposals."

The decision will now go to full council as part of the budget setting process in early 2016.

PM and leader 'fine' despite leaked emails on cuts clash

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORDSHIRE'S leader has pledged his relationship with Prime Minister David Cameron is far from in tatters after leaked private emails revealed the pair arguing over council budget cuts.

In an email letter released on Friday from the Prime Minister to Oxfordshire County Council's leader Ian Hudspeth, Mr Cameron says he is 'disappointed' in the list of planned cuts to services.

To which Mr Hudspeth responds 'I am open to all suggestions' on how to handle budget cuts.

But Mr Hudspeth told the Guardian he has since met Mr Cameron and their relationship is intact.

He said: "I saw the Prime Minister on Friday and we were fine and there was no tension.

"I guess you could say that in all working relationships, there is tension, but none of that was evident when I met him. I can safely say our relationship is good."

He added: "I said all I can really say on the matter in my letter."

A spokesperson for Mr Cameron, Rose Rawlins, said: "There is still significant scope for sensible savings across local government to be made by back office consolidation, disposing of surplus property and joining up our local public services."

"We will be discussing with Oxfordshire how this can be taken forward to help protect frontline services."

The emails were originally sent in September.

The county council is currently in the process of making £290m worth of savings up until 2018 and on top of those savings, the council announced plans in October to cut an extra £50m.

The council's children's centres, recycling centres and transport services are under threat as a result of cuts.

In Mr Cameron's letter to Cllr

Hudspeth, he wrote: "I was disappointed at the long list of suggestions floated to make significant cuts to frontline services."

"I would have hoped that Oxfordshire would instead be following the best practice of Conservative councils from across the country in making back-office savings and protecting the frontline."

In his letter back to Mr Cameron, Cllr Hudspeth wrote: "I, along with many councillors across the country, worked hard to assist you in achieving a Conservative majority."

"The council is moving cautiously and trying to maintain services, however, there will be difficult decisions to be taken since I have to deliver a balanced budget I am open to all suggestions that will help."

Man jailed for 10 years after shaking baby boy

AN OXFORD man who shook a nine-week-old boy so hard he broke 10 of the baby's ribs was jailed for 10 years at Oxford Crown Court on Friday.

James Lewis, from Carter Close in Headington, was sentenced for causing grievous bodily harm and will serve three years on licence as part of the sentence.

The 25-year-old was found guilty by a unanimous jury on July 23 following a two-week trial.

The baby suffered bleeding to both sides of the brain, 10 broken ribs, bleeds to his eyes a cut tongue, and abrasions to his feet after being shaken by Lewis on December 15, 2013.

Investigating officer, Detective Constable Patricia Coyne, from the child abuse investigation unit, said: "This was a distressing case for all concerned, but this sentence reflects the severity of the injuries caused to the child."

"Despite the terrible injuries, the child has recovered but is continuing to have regular check-ups."

An x-ray of the body also showed three historical fractures.

Lewis was arrested on December 15 in 2013, and was charged with the offence on August 4 last year.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.' So if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Health report says 'shocking' cases in Oxon

A DIGNITY in care report from an Oxfordshire health watchdog has revealed that a number of 'shocking' cases have been uncovered in health services across the county.

The report, written with charity Age UK, titled Dignity in Care in Oxfordshire, was released last Thursday by Healthwatch Oxfordshire, with the project conducted from March 2015 to November 2015 and 161 patients and 57 health workers surveyed.

The report stated: "The experiences reported by people who need communication assistance or have dementia, for example, were not always dignified, and in a small number of cases were shocking."

One woman, 38, who wasn't named in the report and who attended the brain support charity Headway Oxford in Kennington, said: "I was in a lot of pain and one staff member really upset me by yanking me out of my chair, pulling my dress and calling me 'unclean'."

Rachel Coney, chief executive of Healthwatch Oxfordshire, said: "There is still much that can be improved about how people are treated when they need health and social care services."

Joint headquarters for police and fire?

• Oxfordshire County Council deputy leader, Rodney Rose

By Loughlan Campbell

POLICE and fire services in Oxfordshire could join up in future headquarters together after their respective leaders signed a written agreement.

The formal commitment, a memorandum of understanding, was signed last month by leaders of Thames Valley Police, Oxfordshire County Council Fire and Rescue Service, Royal Berkshire Fire Authority and Buckingham & Milton Keynes Fire Authority.

A memorandum of understanding is a legal document between more than one authority.

agreement means for Oxfordshire is that in the future, if new police or fire stations are to be constructed, the agreements are in place for both services to be co-located at the site, cutting down on the cost of managing two separate facilities.

Oxfordshire County Council deputy leader and cabinet member for the fire service, Rodney Rose, said: "This move is designed to benefit both the fire and police in Oxfordshire in the long run."

"Thames Valley Police is having to deal with some serious cuts and we think this will perhaps make it easier for their forces in the long-run, if they need to co-locate some of their forces or if they plan to build any new stations."

"This agreement allows us to discuss these possibilities in an easier way. The approach of sharing properties is an excellent way for our various organisations to save money and work more effectively together."

In a national police efficiency inspection carried out by the HM Inspectorate of Constabulary, published on October 19, it revealed that Thames Valley Police had seen a reduction of 69 police officers, 286 staff and 41 police community support officers since 2010.

However, it also revealed that the percentage of officers on the front line rose from 88 to 92 per cent over the course of the last five years.

Thames Valley Police are expected to bring in a further reduction of 167 police officers in their budget for 2015/16.

Anthony Stansfeld, police and crime commissioner for Thames Valley, said: "Working effectively with partner organisations plays a significant role in improving performance and decreasing costs."

"I hope that by working together and co-locating we can both reduce costs and create opportunities for further collaborative work."

Cllr Rose added that a proposed location for a new fire station, which could be shared with the police, would be Carterton.

Oxfordshire's Open Uni staff set for strike action

By Alex Ballinger

OPEN University (OU) staff in Oxfordshire are set to go on strike after it was announced last month seven OU centres are set to close including its Oxford base.

University and College Union (UCU) announced the strike action last Thursday after its members voted in favour of the walkouts.

The plans for closures were announced in September and would see the site in Foxcombe Hill, Boars Hill, close and cause potential job losses for 500 people across the UK.

UCU Open University branch president Pauline Collins said: "The only people who still seem to think that axing 500 jobs and closing down seven regional Open University centres is a good idea are the senior managers."

Three-quarters of the union's members (72 per cent) voted in favour of strike action but no date has yet been set and no time period has been decided.

Union members are due to meet this week to discuss the next steps in the dispute.

The OU has said the proposals would improve student support and managers hope to have the new structure in place by February 2017.

A meeting of the OU's governing council is due to take place this month to discuss and potentially approve the plans.

OU spokesperson Rachel James, said: "We understand this will be a difficult time for everyone involved, including those most directly affected, and want to work constructively with unions to look after staff in the best possible way."

"We do not believe industrial action will be beneficial for our staff or students."

She added: "Our services to students would be enhanced by these proposals, and no existing services to students will be withdrawn."

The centres earmarked for closure are Oxford, Birmingham, Bristol, Cambridge, Gateshead, Leeds and London.

However UCU have said if strike action goes ahead walkouts will also take place in OU offices in Belfast, Cardiff, Edinburgh, Milton Keynes, Manchester and Nottingham.

Couple mark daughter's life in Santa run

A MUM and dad whose 17-year-old daughter lost her battle against cancer in February will be among more than 1,300 Santas running through the streets of Oxford to fundraise for Helen and Douglas House hospice.

Zoe and Adrian Tandy will be donning belts and beards for 'Santa's on the Run' on Sunday, December 13, in memory of Lauren Tandy, who passed away at the children and young peoples' hospice in Magdalen Road.

The annual 2k run is in aid of the charity which helped care for Lauren and support her family.

Lauren died from a rare and aggressive form of bone cancer which needed complex treatment.

Mr Tandy said: "We wanted to give something back to the hospice after the help we received."

"Lauren would have loved what we're doing and if she was still here now she would be helping to raise funds for the hospice too."

Mrs Tandy added: "Zoe, Lauren's mum said: 'It's difficult to put into words the level of care received because amazing just does not seem a strong enough word.'"

"Everyone we met at Douglas House were very special people, what they do day in and day out is nothing short of remarkable."

The 2k annual fun run has more than 2,300 people signed up so far.

It will see them run through Oxford city centre and University Parks.

'Santas on the Run' starts at 9am.

Oxfordshire remembers the fallen

• Wallingford's Market Place service (picture by Christian Sinkinson)

CROWDS of over 10,000 people paid their respect to fallen soldiers of our armed forces in a series of ceremonies held across Oxfordshire on Remembrance Sunday.

More than 1,000 people lined the streets of St Giles' in Oxford as Lord Mayor Rae Humberstone marched alongside the Corunna Band and Bugles of Oxfordshire Army Cadet Force at the head of the parade.

The Very Reverend Bob Wilkes, Vicar of St Michael at the North Gate in Cornmarket Street, led the service.

Mayor Humberstone told the Guardian: "I thought the whole parade and service was fantastic. The members of the public did not show anything but 100 per cent respect for us."

"It's a solemn occasion but it's one that is made memorable by the thousands that come down and show their support."

"As a councillor it's one of the days that I really look forward to and as mayor, it was a one-off for me, which made it a very special day and will live long in the memory."

Oxford West and Abingdon MP Nicola Blackwood paid her respects on the day at Botley Commonwealth War Graves Cemetery and she tweeted: 'Deeply moving service at Botley Commonwealth War Graves'.

Mayor of Didcot Des Healy praised a service run by the Royal British Legion Oxfordshire in Didcot where about 1,000 residents paid their respects.

The Mayor led a parade from Edinburgh Drive up to the Civic Hall memorial garden where a service was held.

By Loughlan Campbell & Alex Ballinger

He said: "It was one of the most well attended ceremonies I've been to in Didcot, there was over a thousand there which was a lovely tribute to the fallen."

"It's one of those days which really mark your time as mayor."

Mayor of Witney Jim King led a ceremony in Witney, laying a wreath on the town memorial in High Street.

He said: "It was excellent, it went absolutely perfectly and the turnout was good. It all worked like clockwork and it was a great tribute to our fallen."

"We will never forget the sacrifice made by so many for our today"

Chairman of Witney Conservative Future Liam Walker said: "It was good to see so many residents, veterans and organisations of Witney come together for those lost in past conflicts."

"We will never forget the sacrifice made by so many for our today. We will remember them."

Wallingford's Market Square was packed with residents from all ages as three military helicopters from RAF Benson flew over as the ceremony took place and Mayor Lynda Atkins laid the first wreath while names of the fallen were read aloud.

Mayor Atkins, who is also chairman of the Royal British Legion Oxfordshire, said: "The turnout was absolutely fantastic at the service."

"You couldn't fit any more people in the square it was that busy. There were thousands."

"Wallingford has strong connections to RAF Benson and they are very much part of the town's family, so it's a massive deal for the people of Wallingford."

Wantage and Didcot MP Ed Vaizey attended a service at Wantage's St Peter and St Paul Church, on the corner of Market Street.

Abingdon town leaders met at the Guildhall before walking to St Helen's Church led by Mayor Helen Pighills for a service at 10am before hundreds gathered at the memorial in High Street.

Rape allegations rise by 35 per cent across Oxfordshire

RAPE allegations rose by more than a third in the last year to 1,085 in the Thames Valley, new figures have revealed.

The statistics by the National Rape Monitoring Group revealed of the 1,085 reported, there were only 61 convictions.

The independent inspectors' report published on Thursday also showed 311 cases were referred to the Crown Prosecution Service, and charges were brought in 217 of those cases.

Thames Valley Police Assistant Chief Constable Richard List said there has been an upsurge particularly in historic rape allegations.

He said: "We have experienced an increase in recorded rapes in the last few years. This is in part down to the growing reporting of non-recent rapes."

"It also demonstrates a greater confidence among victims that the police will deal with the rape in an effective and sympathetic way."

The figures for April 2014 to April 2015 compare to 709 rapes reported in the same period from 2013 to 2014; a rise of 35 per cent.

The report also said Thames Valley had the fifth highest level of cancelled rape allegations in England and Wales of 42 police forces.

By Loughlan Campbell

And on average rape cases took about 232 days to get to court after being reported, which it adds had 'a significant detrimental psychological impact on victims'.

Oxford University student group, It Happens Here, campaigns to raise awareness of sexual violence in the city.

Co-chair Tiana Dias called the rise 'troubling'.

She said: "The disparity between the number of reported cases and the number of convictions shows that the judicial systems are not working hard enough to support survivors."

"The police need to take significant steps to change the current methods being undertaken to prevent serious sexual assault as they are not nearly effective as they should be."

A Freedom of Information request from It Happens Here to Thames Valley Police, showed that there were 17 cases of sexual assault in Oxford city centre involving 18 to 24 year olds in 2014, and 18 so far this year.

Uni blasted over £75m donation

OXFORD University has been slated for a decision to accept a £75 million donation from Russian billionaire Len Blavatnik to build its Blavatnik School of Government.

A letter penned by 21 signatories urged the university to investigate allegations of corporate abuse by the consortium of Russian billionaires Access-Alfa Renova (AAR), of which Mr Blavatnik is a member.

It said: "We insist the university should stop selling its reputation and prestige to Putin's associates."

"It should carry out a new and independent due-diligence investigation with clearly defined ethical norms."

"We believe it is high time for transparency and procedural reforms at Oxford with regard to foreign donations and awards."

It referred to accusations that AAR were part of a harassment campaign against BP in Russia.

Oxford University spokesman Julia Paolitto said: "Oxford University has a thorough and robust scrutiny process in place with regard to philanthropic giving."

"The committee to review donations conducts appropriate due diligence based on publicly available information. The university is confident in this process and in its outcomes."

"The university is a world leader for research and education at a time of growing global competition."

"Generous philanthropic donations help make this possible, supporting outstanding teaching and research discoveries of worldwide benefit."

The school opened its doors in September 2012 and is due to make the full move to its new permanent home in a state-of-the-art building at Radcliffe Observatory Quarter in Walton Street in January.

The letter was sent last week to The Guardian.

It's go, go, go for racing in Oxford

BUDDING Formula One drivers wanting to show off their racing skills on the track can now do so in the complete safety of a comfortable chair in an Oxford simulation centre.

The Race Hut, converted from the old Fox FM radio station headquarters in Cowley's Pony Road, celebrated its grand opening last Wednesday.

In total 16 race seats, each set up with three screens, steering wheel and pedals, have been installed for groups to compete against one other in all forms of motorsport, including Formula One and saloon cars.

And two-time British Touring Car Championship title winner Jason Plato was on hand to cut the ribbon with staff last week.

He said: "It's great fun, the kit works, and it doesn't feel like an arcade, you get totally immersed in it."

"A layout like this where you can have groups or individuals come in and do an event, it's great fun and keeps the nutters off the streets, which could apply to me too actually."

"As each year goes on, the technology gets closer and closer to the real thing, but the most important thing is you do get immersed in it, and what you do feels right."

Competitors can take on tracks from around the world, including

By Adam Flinn

British classics such as Brands Hatch, to Spa Francorchamps in Belgium and Bathurst in Australia.

Oxford is the second Race Hut to be opened, in addition to the centre already open in Slough.

Owner David Goode, an ex-racing driver himself, said: "There's nothing round here like this."

"It's an opportunity of getting together to compete with excellent simulation and racing each other in safety and enjoying the thrill of racing, that's what it's all about."

"The great thing is we have regular customers, so groups who have been already keep coming back, and that's why we're confident in building this new venue, and the idea is to open more."

Police issue warning after spate of Cowley burglaries

POLICE issued a warning to homeowners after burglars raided five houses in Oxford in one week.

Jewellery, cash, a camera, a passport and a TV were among the valuables stolen in the string of Cowley burglaries.

The first was on Tuesday, October 27, in Crescent Road between 5pm and 9pm before a second home in Bulan Road was targeted between 3pm and Midnight on Saturday, October 31.

Three properties were then burgled on Tuesday, November 3 - two in the space of 10 minutes between 6pm and 6.10pm in Temple Road and Crescent Road. And the last sometime between 9am and 7pm in Crescent Road.

Thames Valley Police investigating officer Sergeant Kirk Rogers said: "If you leave your home in complete darkness, your curtains are not drawn, and no car on the drive it's an obvious sign to an opportunist burglar that no one is in."

Police recommended installing security lights outside, keeping valuables out of sight making sure windows and doors are locked and buying a 24-hour segment timer for lamps, radio or TVs to turn on and off giving the impression someone is home.

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called “boxes”, “blocks”, “regions”, or “sub-squares”) contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. ## All male dance group to shine in Oxford

STRENGTH, camaraderie, vulnerability and hostility will be among the themes tackled by an all male dance group in 'Beauty of the Beast' at Pegasus Theatre in Oxford on Tuesday, November 18.

Choreographed by co-artistic director and dancer Anthony Missen, from Manchester-based Company Chameleon Dance Theatre, the show also incorporates comedy, drama, and singing with moves that focuses on male behaviour and interaction.

With the show currently on a small tour across the UK, Mr Missen hopes the audience can connect with the six dancers.

"I hope the audience feel something and come away with questions or thoughts; I suspect they'll laugh and I wouldn't be surprised if they were moved," Anthony said.

"I think they'll go on a roller coaster of different emotions and feelings.

By James Richings

"Some of the piece is very hard, some of it is ridiculous and we go to a lot of different places.

"I think people will also relate their own experiences to what they're watching so in a sense they bring themselves to the performance – they're bound to recognise in the characters things about themselves or men they know.

"Everybody has a male figure who has an influence on their lives."

Consisting of Eryck Brahmamania, Lee Clayden, Thomasin Gülgeç, Anthony Missen, Theo Papohunda and Daniel Phung, 'Beauty of the Beast' was created last year and in that time has become one of the most talked about shows on the dance circuit.

It has been praised by many for its originality and its mainly freshly composed music, (albeit with a couple of songs you may recognise from the charts) as well as the way the show covers many different dance genres.

But the show's success is mainly put down to how it portrays the male mind and its complexities.

"My choreography is driven by things that interest me, things that arise locally and globally: men start wars, statistics of male depression and suicide are staggering issues with violence and male behaviour in different cultures – it all interests me," he said.

"Everyone has problems of course but I think a lot of men don't know where to put themselves in society; things have changed so much, male roles, female roles and I think a lot of men are lost."

Tickets cost from £6 to £13 and the show starts at 7.30pm.

Rocking out and going Grunge

By James Richings

ROCK-GRUNGE band VANT will hopefully remember their instruments, and how to play, when they hit The Bullingdon next Thursday, November 19.

Guitarist and lead singer Mattie Vant, bass guitarist Billy Morris, guitarist Henry Eastham and drummer David 'Greenie' Green were not quite as coordinated when they first met.

But the four friends are getting their act together for the Cowley Road gig.

"The four of us met in an opium den in which we smoked so much that we forgot which instruments we all played," Matt told the Guardian.

"However, when we came round we picked up the nearest thing to us and that is how the band was formed and the name VANT stands for Very Angry Naughty Turtles.

"We are looking forward to our Oxford debut."

The last year has seen them tour with fellow rock band Royal Blood and perform at various festivals across the UK, including the Secret Garden Party, Dot to Dot, and Reading and Leeds Festivals.

And with their first two singles, 'Parasite' and 'Parking Lot' proving popular with rock and grunge fans,

Matt revealed their debut album will be released next summer.

"There will be a very special surprise tailored specifically for your city when we perform to our audiences", Matt proclaimed.

"And the best thing about performing to an audience that appreciates your music is in the main. It's the appreciation."

After forming last year, the four friends wasted no time to get their name out in the rock and grunge world to fulfil their music ambition.

And with the steps they have already taken over the last 12 months, The Bullingdon pub gig could be their last Oxford showing before closing in on mainstream success.

The gig starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost £5.50.

Puss in Boots

A PUPPET interpretation of 'Puss in Boots' will be performed at the Cornerstone Arts Centre in Didcot on Sunday, November 15.

Starring CBeebies presenter Patrick Lynch as the puppeteer, the show sees how the talking cat tricks an ogre and the king.

Suitable for children over four, the show starts at 2pm tickets cost £8, or £6 for concessions.

River Dart

A SHOW about the River Dart in Devon is coming to the Oxford Playhouse from Tuesday, November 17 to Saturday, November 21.

Adapted as a play from Alice Oswald's award-winning poem, 'Dart' focuses on all its mysteries through sound, film and illustration. Tickets cost £6.

T. Rex tribute

T. Rex tribute act T. Rextasy will be at the Mill Arts Centre in Banbury on Friday, November 21 to relive some of the rock band's most popular hits such as, 'I Love to Boogie', 'Ride a White Swan' and, 'Solid Gold Easy Action'.

The Spiceball Park gig starts at 8pm and tickets cost £18.50.

Representing: James Acaster

WITH The Rock as his role model, comedian James Acaster will be fighting for laughs at The Glee Club in Oxford tonight, November 12.

The 30-year-old is bringing his 'Represent' tour to Hythe Bridge Street from this year's Edinburgh Fringe Festival.

He told the Guardian: "The Rock (Dwayne Johnson) was a big inspiration for me. The wrestler. He was one of the greatest comedy creations ever. "He took himself so seriously all the time even though he was a doofus."

Known for his whimsical demeanour on stage, James launched his comedy career seven years ago and has emerged as a regular at the Fringe since 2009.

But Plan B was very different.

He revealed his back-up if a comedy career hadn't come calling.

"Probably a thief - a professional thief," James joked.

"I like the thought of robbing people and creeping round in the dark. I could go on the lamb if I got caught. It's all very appealing."

By James Richings

But here he is instead, making his way to Oxford, and then Didcot's Cornerstone Arts Centre on Friday, November 20.

The Kettering comedian started making people laugh for a living in January 2008 and has since appeared on TV shows including '8 out of 10 Cats' and 'Mock the Week', as well as touring alongside Nick Helm and Josh Widdicombe.

But things haven't always gone exactly to plan.

"When I perform, I like it when the audience appreciate my jokes. Sometimes this does not happen. And on those nights people can get a little bit cross," he said.

And the Kettering comedian has not yet won an Fringe Festival prize despite being nominated four times for the Edinburgh Comedy Award between 2012 to 2015.

Suitable for over 16s, the doors at The Glee Club open for 7pm.

Tickets cost £14.

ROBERT HABERMANN PRESENTS 'FRANK SINATRA - HIS WAY'

Robert tells the remarkable story of one of the greatest singers of the 20th Century - the 'rise and fall and rise' of Sinatra's vast illustrious singing career - from band singer to the 'pop idol' of the bobby soxers in the 1940's, then becoming one of the greatest performers and recording some of the biggest selling songs of all time. ## Polestar upgrade for Volvo

THE range of high-performance Volvos is welcoming another model into the Polestar fold.

The XC90 is the latest Volvo to be served a series of upgrades to make the grade into their brand name of Polestar - the Swedish carmaker's official performance division, born from part of Polestar racing team which Volvo bought in July.

The upgrades will boost the power and torque on the D5 diesel and T6 petrol Drive-E engines in the XC90 models, make accelerator responses quicker, faster gear changes and stop gearshifts during rapid cornering which can unsettle the car.

The improvements have been developed and designed by the engineers of Polestar along with the racing drivers of Polestar Cyan Racing, the official motorsport partner to Polestar.

"The new Polestar optimisation is about making the car more dynamic and responsive to drive," reigning Scandinavian Touring Car Championship champion and Polestar Cyan Racing driver Thed Björk said.

"We use the same philosophy as when

By James Richings

optimising our race cars which is to create a completely balanced package.

"This is exactly what we have focussed on with the new-generation optimisations for Volvo cars: powertrain optimisation for real-life driving."

Max output of the D5 Drive-E engine has increased to 233bhp and 500Nm of torque (up from 225bhp and 470Nm), while the T6 Drive-E is boosted to 334hp and 440Nm (from 320bhp and 400Nm).

Polestar performance optimisations has also been created for the D4 diesel and T5 petrol Drive-E engines in other Volvo models.

With Polestar optimisation, the D4 Drive-E offers 200bhp and 440Nm (up from 190bhp and 400Nm), while the output of the T5 Drive-E gets to 253bhp and 400Nm (from 245bhp and 350 Nm).

Volvo Car UK managing director Nick Connor said: "The combination of increased power and torque - especially at medium revs - and the changes to make the entire drivetrain more responsive ensure owners will really feel the difference."

BRANCH MANAGER

We are looking for applicants who would have the ability to fill the role of Branch manager. Duties would include the organising of staff, dealing with customers, ordering materials, and seeking new sales. A sales background, or a timber background, would be an advantage, but a previous role in a managerial position will be essential. The successful applicant must have the ability to organise staff and deal with all the various issues that arise. Full backup will be given, but self-motivation will be paramount. This is offered as a full time position and a chance to grow with a rapidly expanding company. Remuneration will be based on experience and ability.

GENERAL ASSISTANT

Persons required to assist in a number of duties, ranging from the manufacture of fencing panels, to learning to make gates, and working in the yard. Full training will be provided. The successful applicant will be working within a workshop environment but may be called upon to work in the busy yard, loading customers, and generally assisting wherever needed. Previous experience is not essential but the ability to communicate with customers is required. Remuneration will be based on ability to fill the position and experience.

For both vacancies, please send your C.V. for the attention of Steve Randall, The Fencing Centre, 34-35 Pony Road, Horspath Industrial Estate, Oxford OX4 2RD, or email your C.V. to steve@fencingcentre.co.uk

Please state quite clearly which position you are applying for.

the word on the street in oxford

FULL AND PART-TIME COACH DRIVERS REQUIRED

Tappins Coaches has undergone a major transformation over the last 3 years. Our fleet replacement programme is almost complete, with a further 21 new vehicles on order for delivery early in the New Year. As a result we are looking to strengthen our Didcot-based driving team.

We are looking for experienced, smart, flexible, and customer-focused professionals. Our work includes home-to-school transport, rail replacement, express service, corporate charter and multi-day touring, both in the UK and mainland Europe. The amount of stage carriage work currently undertaken is very small, so applicants from that background will need to demonstrate a clear desire and ability to quickly adapt.

The current rate of pay (including merit bonus) is £12.00 per hour, and you will be entitled to 34 days annual leave. All full-time drivers are guaranteed 160 hours per 4-weekly pay period.

If you have other commitments which mean you are unable to work on a full-time basis, we have a large volume of home-to-school, evening and weekend work which we could offer you on a part-time or casual basis.

U's injury crisis set to give Hoban a try

OXFORD United were without in-form Ryan Taylor and Johnny Mullins as they headed into their Johnstone's Paint Trophy clash with Dagenham & Redbridge in East London as the Oxfordshire Guardian went to print last night.

The U's were also without Calum O'Dowda as they headed into the contest as he was away with the Republic of Ireland under-21 side.

Captain Jake Wright, Josh Ruffels and Sam Long were all out of the squad through respective back, foot and ankle injuries and star forward Kemar Roofe was also a doubt.

The clash followed United's FA Cup set back in the first round at Braintree Town on Sunday in which Taylor's first-half goal was cancelled out by Kenny Davis after Mullins was given his marching orders.

United had made five changes to their starting XI with left-back Cameron Gayle making his debut for Michael Appleton's side.

By Loughlan Campbell

The U's got off to a fast start and found Taylor's opener on 15 minutes after O'Dowda delivered an inch-perfect cross for Taylor to thump past Braintree 'keeper Will Norris.

Taylor should have added a second just a minute later after a fiery shot from O'Dowda was shoved into the former Pompey forward's path, but he blasted it over with the goal gaping.

After the restart, The U's should have extended their lead after Hoban was clean through thanks to a Taylor back heel but Norris got down well to make a reflex save.

Hoban then missed two chances after Norris blocked away a shot and the Irishman then cleared the cross bar with a looping header.

However, United were then dealt the setback on 63 minutes as Chez Isaac ran rings around the U's defence, playing in David who side footed home from 20 yards.

Mullins was then red-carded, following a challenge with Michael Cheek with the defender already on a yellow card.

Danny Hylton and Liam Sercombe tried to break the deadlock in the final fifteen minutes and Benji Buchel had to keep the home side from causing an upset but in the end it all finished even.

The replay will take place at the Kassam Stadium next Tuesday with the winner set to place Forest Green Rovers at home on the weekend of December 4-7.

Stars strike hard against Thunder

OXFORD City Stars put in a blinder of a performance in a 4-2 win over Milton Keynes Thunder on Sunday.

The Thunder had lost their last four games on the trot and the Stars outclassed them on the day as they outshot and outgunned their Buckinghamshire opponents.

Alan Green put the Stars in front with just five minutes into the game in a power play goal, through assists from Darren Elliot and Andy Cox.

However, Jamie Line cancelled out the lead at the end of the first period and an early penalty from Oxford's Ben Ealey-Newman in the second period was blocked.

The Thunder then went in front through Josh Nicklin seven minutes later and Josh Florey nearly put the puck into the net later on in the period.

Just a minute into the third period, Cox evened things up in the tie and then Alan Green added his second of the day seven minutes later.

The Thunder saw two penalties blocked out by the Oxford defence and then Green sealed the win for Oxford.

He slipped the puck past the Thunder 'keeper after being assisted by Jason Kin and Oxford held on to secure the victory.

Oxford GP2 ace seeks strong end to season

JUST two races of the GP2 Series championship remain, and one of Oxfordshire's rising motorsport stars is looking to win at both as he continues his quest to reach Formula One.

Alex Lynn, development driver for Grove-based Williams Martini Racing, has been juggling his F1 testing responsibilities with racing for DAMS in GP2.

He currently sits fifth in the standings in what is considered to be the official feeder series to F1, having picked up two wins in his debut season in the category.

And even though the last two rounds in Italy and Rus-lia haven't been kind to him - crashing out of the lead in the latter in particular - Lynn is optimistic of a strong end to the year in Bahrain and Abu Dhabi.

"The last two rounds I've got to aim to win," the 22-year-old, who lives in Oxford, said.

"In Sochi and Monza we've been in a position to win but didn't get the results, so I think now is the time to put it altogether and bring it all in for next season."

Lynn moved up to GP2 this year having won the GP3 championship in 2014, prompting Williams to sign him in January.

He continued: "It's been amazing at Williams, I've really integrated well into the team and I'm looking forward to carrying on in that role and proving to these guys that I can race the car in the future."

"Helping the team develop the car as obviously the race drivers are busy racing on a weekend, so I'm there to make sure things stay on the right path."

And while GP2 is the focus at the moment, Lynn has his sights firmly set on Formula One in the future.

"That's certainly the plan," he added.

• Alex Lynn is hoping for a strong end to the GP2 season

Smith's 'fantastic' season concludes

BRADLEY Smith finished sixth in the season finale of the MotoGP World Championship at Valencia and described his year as 'fantastic'.

Smith concluded the 30-lap sprint in succinct fashion, meaning he finished the championship in sixth on 181 points after 18 rounds.

The Oxford rider had began the race from the rear of the second row on the grid but bolted forward throughout the race and beat his championship rival Andrea Dovizioso, who finished seventh, both in the race and in the standings.

The 24-year-old said: "It's been a fantastic season and almost perfect and I can't be hard on myself as I ended up in the top six. I am very proud of this but I am especially pleased with my performance in the second half of the season."

"We have to look back on all of the ups and downs of the year and then improve on the negatives because we have to do a better job next season."

"In this sport, you can't just stay at the same level, so we need to see how we can make another step forward."

His Yamaha Tech3 team manager, Herve Poncharal, said: "Bradley has done really well all year, so I must congratulate him."

"He has performed fantastically well all season."

Cattell's first game ends in 2-0 defeat

WANTAGE Town's new interim player-manager Stuart Cattell tasted defeat in his first game in charge as the Freds fell to a 2-0 defeat at Bishops Cleeve on Saturday.

There was only two minutes on the clock when Cattell's side fell behind after Aaron Drake scored from what the Wantage fans ruled as an off-side position, latching on to a cross to beat Freds' keeper Ed Cavanagh.

Wantage looked to find a response immediately and should have found the net when Jake Johns' free-kick forced Mitres' keeper Sam Gilder into making a reflex save.

The second half saw the Freds get more time and space on the ball and nearly found the net once more when Nick Thorne was picked out at the far post by James Glover.

However, despite being unmarked, Thorne couldn't make contact with the delivery and the Freds' frustration continued.

Their lack of composure in the box came back to haunt them after Elliot Kennedy made it two for the home side on 82 minutes when he finished off a cross from 10 yards out.

The Freds were missing top goalscorer Ben Whitehead for the game, but will have the striker back in the squad for their tussle with AFC Totton travelling to Alfredian Park on Saturday.

Cattell's side lie 19th in the table on eleven points, level with Bridgwater Town who are in the relegation zone, with Wantage having played two games more.

City's home streak ends

OXFORD City faced only their second defeat of the season on Tuesday in a 3-1 loss to Havant & Waterlooville at Marsh Lane.

The result was a blow to the National League South side's promotion chances, with Justin Merritt's team previously unbeaten at home.

Havant's new signing Godfrey Poku revelled in a shocking opening ten minutes for the home side, striking a brace, with goals coming in the fourth and eighth minute.

City were completely shell-shocked with their start but did manage to find a way back into the game through forward Conor McDonagh on 49 minutes, who sliced home from a goalmouth scramble.

However, Havant soon had their tails up and three minutes later Poku completed his hat-trick in a great result for the visitors who are now 18th whilst Oxford City remain five points behind leaders Ebbsfleet United.

City had faced off against United at the weekend in a top-of-the-table clash with star midfielder Luke Coulson scoring a wonder-goal from a free-kick to put City ahead.

However, Matt Godden struck a reply for United later on in the half but the game teetered out to a draw with Oxford's Daniel King also being sent off.

City face a trip away at Bath City on Saturday in the league.

Quins' last minute try seals draw

• Oxford Harlequins square off against the Towcestrians (picture by Andy Fitzpatrick)

A LAST minute try from Freddie Exley secured a 25-25 draw with Towcestrians for the Oxford Harlequins on Saturday.

The Quins were at home for the encounter with the then league leaders, and the tussle ended up as a fair bout between the two teams at Marston Ferry Road.

Quins went in front though Jack Robinson on three minutes in a run from his own 22-metres before Matt Yuill and Murray Aitcheson scored unconverted tries to make it 10-5 to the visitors.

By half time it was 15-8 after Robinson kicked a penalty but James Falvey crossed for the visitors.

Robinson then crossed once more before Falvey scored a penalty for the away side and Oxford drew level on 64 minutes with Alex Kelly going over.

The Towcestrians looked to have put the game to bed in the 70th minute after Yuill touched down and Falvey added the extras but the Quins ploughed forward.

Exley's try came in the dying seconds with the Quin collecting Avery's kick to touch down with Robinson converting his effort to even up the scores just as the referee blew the final whistle bringing the contest to an end.

LOTUS LOOKING TO PICK UP PACE

LOTUS F1 will be looking to pick up the pace at this weekend's Brazilian Grand Prix, as they look to end the season on a high.

The Enstone-based squad have struggled in recent rounds, although they have managed to score points in the last four races.

Romain Grosjean managed to fend off team-mate Pastor Maldonado for the 10th last time out in Mexico, and will be hoping to replicate the form that took him to second place in the 2013 race in Brazil.

By Adam Flinn

He said: "Interlagos is a fantastic track and there's no part of it that isn't great.

"There never seems to be a part where you relax, even the main start-finish straight isn't boring as it starts uphill with some interesting camber, then gradually turns before finishing at the downhill turn one

"If I had to pick favourite parts of Interlagos, I would say the first and last corners, as the first corner is really technical and punishes you if you get it wrong, while the last corner is so fast and puts quite a strain on your body.

"I'd say everything is pretty good in Interlagos, I love it!"

Maldonado will also be targeting a return to the points, after his three-race run of scoring finishes was halted by Grosjean in Mexico.

Brazil has never been a good track for the Venezuelan, who only has a best finish there of 12th, coming last year.

He said: "Interlagos may not have the most impressive infrastructure these days but it is a great, historic circuit.

"I really love the track, the atmosphere and the people - Brazilians have such a great Formula One heritage and for me it will be great to be at another event where there are a lot of Venezuelans in the crowds.

"Hopefully we can have a great race and put on another good show for the South American fans."

Grosjean is currently 11th in the drivers' standings with 45 points, while Maldonado is 14th with 26 points.
